

Global Transports and Logistics.
Reducing costs by optimizing your cargo flow.

Personally worldwide.

Gondrand Stella has been transporting goods world-wide since 1995. From the outset, we focused on international business trends. A lot has changed at our company over the past years, but not our willingness to deal effectively with the customer's special requirements or our capacity to transform those needs into future-proof solutions and products.

Our corporate values – individuality, personal commitment and responsibility – still remain the cornerstones of our business concept. No matter what your requirements are, in Gondrand Stella you have a partner whose first priority is your needs. We look forward to the challenges you place before us.
